DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's election without traverse of the group II (original claims 8-10), drawn to a method of making a first product comprising platelet rich plasma and a carrier, in the reply filed on 12/17/2008 is acknowledged.

Claims 1-7 and 11-45 were canceled by applicant.

Claims 8-10 as amended and new claims 46-51 (12/17/2008) are pending.

In the prior office action claim 9 was included in the Group II with respect to the original claim dependency. However, it was noted that the original claim 9 had uncertain and/or improper dependency when considering the scope of the claimed subject matter drawn to the use of autologous material. In response applicant amended the claim 9 which is now clearly directed to another invention category such as method of using a first product by administering to a patient.

Thus, claims 8-10 as amended and new claims 46-51 (12/17/2008) are subject to further restriction requirement.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 9 as amended, drawn to a method of treating human skin by administering a first product comprising concentrated platelets and a carrier.

Group II, claim(s) 6 and 8 as amended and new claims 46-49, drawn to a method of making a first product comprising concentrated platelets and a carrier.

Group V, new claim(s) 50 and 51, drawn to a method of making a third product or a transdermal patch comprising matrix, impermeable film, a composition with the platelets and permeable membrane.

This application contains claims drawn to more than one of permissible combinations of categories of inventions such as more than one product and more than one process of making and using the products. As it was explained in the prior office action, the “special technical feature” (that defines a contribution which each of the claimed inventions, considered as a whole, makes over the prior art) is known in the prior art. For example: US 5,599,558 teaches a product that is “platelet rich plasma” or preparation with platelets as intended for wound healing or treating skin (entire document including col. 5, lines 30-33). Thus, unity of inventions is lacking. See MPEP 1850. 37 CFR 1.475.

With respect to the new claims 50 and 51 it is noted that they are considered to be drawn to other than “first” product because they encompass incorporation of additional and/or another preparation with platelets such as “a composition comprising the platelets” (claim 50, lines 2-3). In alternative, it is at the very least uncertain what are “the platelets” recited in the claims 50 and 51. With respect to the claim 8 it is also noted that it does not have any preamble. However, applicants elected the Group II (original claims 8-10) without traverse as being drawn to a method of making a product, thereby, admitting that the Group II invention was/is directed to a method of making a product not to the method of using the product.

37 CFR 1.475. Unity of invention before the International Searching Authority, the International Preliminary Examining Authority and during the national stage.

(a) An international and a national stage application shall relate to one invention only or to a group of inventions so linked as to form a single general inventive concept ("requirement of unity of invention"). Where a group of inventions is claimed in an application, the requirement of unity of invention shall be fulfilled only when there is a technical relationship among those inventions involving one or more of the same or corresponding special technical features. The expression "special technical features" shall mean those technical features that define a contribution which each of the claimed inventions, considered as a whole, makes over the prior art.

(b) An international or a national stage application containing claims to different categories of invention will be considered to have unity of invention if the claims are drawn only to one of the following combinations of categories:

- (1) A product and a process specially adapted for the manufacture of said product; or
 - (2) A product and a process of use of said product; or
 - (3) A product, a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product, and a use of the said product; or
 - (4) A process and an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out the said process; or
 - (5) A product, a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product, and an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out the said process.
- (c) If an application contains claims to more or less than one of the combinations of categories of invention set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, unity of invention might not be present.
- (d) If multiple products, processes of manufacture or uses are claimed, the first invention of the category first mentioned in the claims of the application and the first recited invention of each of the other categories related thereto will be considered as the main invention in the claims, see PCT Article 17(3)(a) and § 1.476(c).
- (e) The determination whether a group of inventions is so linked as to form a single general inventive concept shall be made without regard to whether the inventions are claimed in separate claims or as alternatives within a single claim.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.
